Perception - Research - Materials - Design - Product

A pure expression of my perception of reality.
A line of accessories that focuses on style and the simplicity of the elements.
This collection is based upon concepts of biomimicry and a passion for sailing.

Accessories

Nature Follower

A hybrid expression of nature and technology.

The polarized lenses are surrounded and protected by a painted wooden frame. The sidepiece and the bridge details are made of marble stone.

Their weightlessness makes them a complementary accessory for a discerning and unconventional target customer.

Nature Follower LE

Leather - Teak wood

W | E Bag

A bag ready to assist and accompany you for the 48 hours of the weekend. The structure in tumbled calfskin leather and the canvas interior give it elegance, durability and comfort. The contrasting color of the seams dominate to give the bag a two-tone effect.

The forty - eight hours of your life

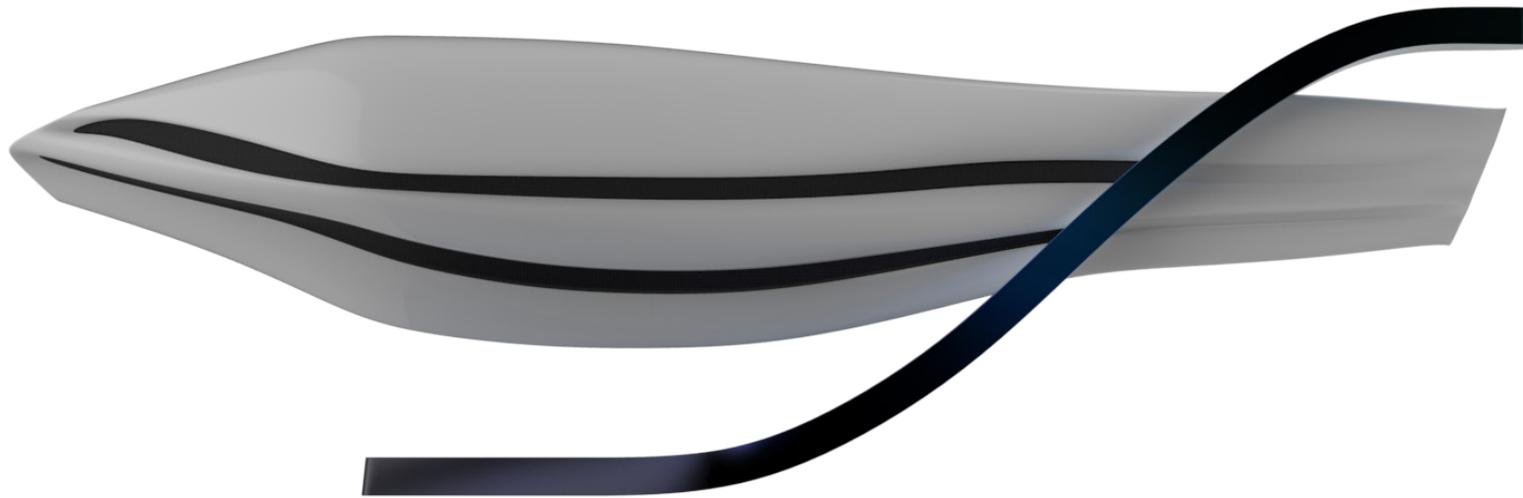

This speaker celebrates and takes inspiration from the natural world using biomimicry for enhanced audio and aesthetics.

Soundwhale

Soundwhale surround sound provides multidirectional audio in the shape of a whale passing through a wave. Made of ceramic and polished titanium, an elegant complement to entertainment systems. Anywhere, from your boat to your house.

The eight knot bag

Bolina

A bag designed for the sea.
The bollards securely anchor the handle with a nautical rope. The polished nappa calfskin leather and ceramic elements give it an incomparable tactile and emotional feeling.

Inspired by the sea

Bolina 5.70

A handbag that combines elements inspired by the sea with the functionality of a document - laptop case.

The lightweight micro engraved wooden structure and aluminum elements make this product unique. The magnetic latch closure secures the interior, which consists of an organizer and a compartment for your device.

“et ventis adversis” laser engraved.
